These are not tribute players. These are globally awarded musicians, Hall of Famers, and featured collaborators of the industry's greatest—from Chet Atkins and Ringo Starr to Tommy Emmanuel, Shania Twain, and Richard Thompson. This tour brings together rare talent once only seen as child prodigies—now revered across the globe.

Meet the Magnificent 7 plus 1 : a special guest may show up at some locations

 Paul Murray- brings legends to life—live on a 20-ft wall—at every show. Murray is the founder, producer, and creative genius of this show. A performance painter and internationally renowned fine artist began exhibiting professionally as a child. By the age of 10, his art was winning awards and captivating collectors. His emotionally rich portraits of rural pioneers and Appalachian life have appeared and won awards in museums and exhibitions worldwide. He has been featured in TV documentaries and publications from Paris to New York, and across North America. Beyond art, his impact is lasting—his work has helped raise nearly $2 million for charities to date.

 Richard Smith -National Fingerstyle Champion and Thumbpickers Hall of Famer is one of the most technically gifted and musically expressive players in the world today. Born in England, Richard began performing publicly by age 6 and famously shared the stage with his hero, Chet Atkins, at just 11 years old. He has since performed in over 30 countries, from Carnegie Hall and The Opry to Her Majesty's Theatre. Praised by legends like Tommy Emmanuel, Steve Wariner, and Richard Thompson. Richard's dazzling technique and soul-stirring performances make him an experience, not just a musician.

 Sarah Smith - our shining star of the stage, charismatic, powerhouse singer-songwriter with an astonishing 25+ music awards to her name. Her fiery vocals and fearless authenticity have captivated audiences across Canada, the U.S., Europe, and the Caribbean. Whether performing solo or with her band, Sarah lights up every room with raw emotion, magnetic stage presence, and unmatched passion. She's not just part of the show—she's the spark that ignites it.

 Rory Hoffman -blind from birth, taught himself piano and guitar by age three, and was drumming in his family's band by five. A self-taught multi-instrumentalist virtuoso, Rory has performed with legends such as Ricky Skaggs and Kacey Musgraves, and was recently called upon to record the album "Look Up," a new country album featuring Ringo Starr. His unique style has graced the stages of the Grand Ole Opry, Ryman Auditorium, Telluride Bluegrass Festival, and Django Fest. A two-time ICMA Musician of the Year and inductee into the SD Country Music Hall of Fame, Rory tours internationally across Europe and the USA. Widely hailed as a legend before his time, Rory leaves even the world's greatest guitarists amazed by his depth, versatility, and jaw-dropping musical instinct.

 David LaBute - David LaBute is a driving force in Southern Ontario's music scene and a core member of the beloved band Bigg Wiggle. Revered for over 20 years of high-octane, feel-good performances, he's brought joy to countless stages and helped raise thousands for local charities. Known for his infectious energy and heartfelt connection with every crowd, David's passion makes him a natural fit for the Magnificent 7.

 Wendell Ferguson- a celebrated Canadian guitarist, singer-songwriter, and entertainer, known for pairing jaw-dropping musicianship with razor-sharp wit. His performances are both technically brilliant and wildly entertaining, making him a true standout in the world music scene. A multi-time JUNO Award nominee and seven-time Canadian Country Music Association (CCMA) Guitar Player of the Year, Wendell Ferguson's unmatched skill earned him a well-deserved place in the Canadian Country Music Hall of Fame. His versatility has led him to collaborate with hundreds of legends such as Shania Twain, The Dixie Chicks, Gordon Lightfoot, and Emmylou Harris.

 John Dymond -one of Canada's most in-demand bassists, a rare CCMA Hall of Honor inductee, recognized with five CCMA Bass Player of the Year Awards. With impeccable tone, timing, and feel, John has anchored the stage and studio for legends like Bruce Cockburn, K.D. Lang, Colin Linden, and Natalie

McMaster. He's appeared on The Junos, The Grammys, Saturday Night Live, The Tonight Show, and David Letterman's The Tonight Show, bringing world-class groove to every performance. Whether on international tours or hit recordings, John's bass lines are the foundation behind the finest in roots, folk, and country. "His timing, tone, and chops are second to none."
